

The Agreement below must be agreed upon by the Program Participant, hereinafter called "The Participant" at the time of registration for any college/professional UCLA Summer Institute Program, hereinafter referred to as "The Program" which includes any related activities arising therein.

Program Name:

Participant Name:

Participant's Date of Birth:

We are excited that you will participate in UCLA Summer Sessions. We are committed to offering all Participants an educational experience of the highest quality, and also maintaining a safe and respectful learning environment. You will be entering into a community of students and educators and will be expected to conduct yourself in a manner which demonstrates respect for yourself, your fellow Participants, UCLA's faculty and staff members, Program administrators and counselors, and members of the local community.

1. This Participant Agreement shall be in effect during the designated Program dates.
2. The Participant must abide by the rules and regulations set forth by the Regents of the University of California, on behalf of its Los Angeles campus, hereinafter called "The University," or "UCLA," including, but not limited to, rules and regulations of the UCLA Office of Residential Life (www.orl.ucla.edu/regulations) and the UCLA Office of Summer Sessions, hereinafter called "Summer Sessions" at www.summer.ucla.edu. Participants will be expected to meet the highest standards both academically and behaviorally and will be held fast to a commitment to academic and personal integrity, respect for all members of the community and teaching, research, administration, disciplinary procedures, or other University activities, regard for the basic rules of physical safety, compliance with directions of University or other public officials, and cooperation with adult supervision. Conduct that threatens the health or safety of any person or that poses a threat of causing damage to University or community property will not be tolerated. Furthermore, Summer Sessions has a "Zero Tolerance" policy with regard to alcohol, illegal drugs (including manufacture, distribution, use, possession, or sale thereof, or the attempted manufacture, distribution, or sale thereof), theft, lewd or indecent behavior, sexual, racial or personal harassment, or intolerance. Participants are subject to discipline, up to and including dismissal, for conduct in violation of the foregoing standards.
3. The Program carries UC credit, and The Participant's accomplishment for the UCLA coursework of The Program will be reported in terms of grades. Grades will be recorded on an official University of California transcript, a permanent record that reflects all courses and units completed at UCLA. It is the responsibility of The Participant to verify whether the credit earned from The Program can transfer to The Participant's desired institution.
4. The Program may include curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities, hereinafter referred to as "Required Activities," and Participants are expected to participate in and be punctual to all Required Activities. Program faculty and administrators reserve the right to dismiss a Participant for repeated tardiness to and/or unauthorized leaves/absences from Required Activities for reasons other than unforeseen emergencies. No make-up activities will be provided. The Participant should consult The Program concerning any other foreseeable absence as soon as possible prior to The Program start date. The Participant understands that in the event that such absence or inability to participate for the entire duration is detrimental to The Participant's success in The Program, The Program may consider cancelling The Participant's registration.

5. Permission for Use of Name, Image, and Statements: The Participant grants The Regents of the University of California permission to record and reproduce the photographic image, videographic image, and oral or recorded statements of The Participant or any part of The Participant's original project or performance, as well as The Participant's name, identity, and voice, in any publication of The Regents of the University of California intended for furthering the mission of the University, including research, educational, promotional, fund-raising, or other related use, including but not limited to, film broadcast, printed publications, webpages, and web-based publications, associated with The University. The Participant waives and releases The Regents of the University of California, its officers, agents, and employees, from any claim or liability relating to the use the photographic image, videographic image, and oral or recorded statements of The Participant or any part of The Participant's original project or performance, as well as The Participant's name, identity, and voice. The Participant acknowledges that The Regents of the University of California will rely on this permission and release in producing, broadcasting, and distributing materials containing the photographic image, videographic image, and oral or recorded statements of The Participant or any part of The Participant's original project or performance, as well as The Participant's name, identity, and voice, and that The Participant will not receive any money or remuneration of any kind from The Regents of the University of California related to this permission and release or the materials covered by this permission and release.
6. Use of Technology: The Participant is subject to all existing laws (federal and state) and University regulations and policies on use of technology, including not only those laws and regulations that are specific to computers and networks, but also those that may apply generally to personal conduct such as:
 - UC Electronic Communications Policy:
<http://policy.ucop.edu/doc/7000470/ElectronicCommunications>
 - UCLA E-mail Policy and Guidelines:
<http://www.adminpolicies.ucla.edu/app/Default.aspx?&id=455>
 - IT Services Acceptable Use Policy:

Any violation may result in technology related privileges being restricted or revoked and may also result in The University undertaking disciplinary or civil action. If the violation constitutes a criminal offense, appropriate legal action may be taken.

7. Medical Responsibility: The Participant certifies that there are no known emotional, medical, physical, or mental health concerns which may hinder participation of The Participant and/or other fellow Participants, even with reasonable accommodation. The Participant is expected to have consulted with his/her healthcare providers with regards to any individual medical, physical, or mental health needs. The University will not be responsible for attending to any emergent medical, physical, or mental needs of The Participant other than as an accommodation for a previously disclosed and documented disability; no assistance for such needs may be provided by the University or its agents including, but not limited to, the Program faculty or staff.

8. Health Insurance: The Participant is expected to maintain sufficient health, accident, disability, and hospitalization insurance. The University does not provide any insurance coverage for Participants.
9. Accommodations for Disabilities: The Participant must be capable of meeting the fundamental requirements of The Program, with reasonable accommodation if needed. Disclosure of information regarding disabilities and requests to be accommodated for the disabilities will allow UCLA to ascertain the reasonableness of such requests. The Center for Accessible Education is The University's office in charge of addressing possible accommodations. If The Participant has an existing disability(ies) that requires certain accommodations to meet The Program's demands, The Participant must formally request the said accommodations by submitting a complete Request for Accommodations Form to confidential@summer.ucla.edu no later than May 15 of the year of The Program, if applicable, or immediately upon enrollment if enrolled after May 15. Timely submission will allow Summer Sessions to coordinate with The Center for Accessible Education to determine the reasonableness of the request(s). Requests must be deemed reasonable and feasible for provision. In the event that the requested accommodation is deemed not reasonable or feasible by Summer Sessions, The Participant will be contacted to discuss other accommodations that may be recommended. In the event that agreement on a reasonable accommodation cannot be reached, The Participant may withdraw from The Program and will receive a full refund of valid payment received for The Program.
10. The Participant shall pay all fees for The Program in full in accordance with the amounts specified by Summer Sessions on the Summer Sessions website at www.summer.ucla.edu. Fees are not refundable after the refund deadline specified on the Summer Sessions website, nor will they be prorated at any time.
11. Program changes and cancellation: The University reserves the right at any time, without prior notice, to cancel, change, or substitute any advertised activities of The Program in emergencies or changed conditions, or in the interest of The Program or The Participant, at The University's sole discretion. The University will make reasonable efforts to sustain The Program's overall academic objectives, but makes no guarantees about any academic activities. The University reserves the right to alter the cost in order to meet unexpected changes in Program related activities. Further, The University reserves the right to cancel The Program without notice (subject to refund obligations as set forth on the Summer Sessions website) and reserves the right to decline any application.
12. The University assumes no responsibility for failure to perform any terms or conditions of this Agreement due to any force majeure event. In the event of force majeure after the refund deadline as specified on the Summer Sessions website, no refunds will be issued. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "force majeure" shall mean fire, earthquake, flood, act of God, strikes, work stoppages or other labor disturbances, riots or civil commotions, litigation, war or other act of any foreign nation, plague, epidemic, pandemic, power of government or governmental agency or authority, or any other cause like or unlike any cause mentioned above, which is beyond the control or authority of The University.
13. The Participant certifies that the statements made on the application in connection with this Agreement are true and correct. Providing false or incorrect information to The University is grounds for immediate cancellation of The Participant's registration.

In Closing:

A breach of this Agreement by The Participant, including but not limited to, delinquency in payment, may result in any or all of the following actions: dismissal from The Program and administrative action against the student's status in The University. The Participant shall remain responsible for all Program related charges. It is understood and accepted that in the event of dismissal, The Participant may not take part in any subsequent Program activities and will not receive a refund, certificate of completion, or an official UCLA transcript.

By checking the box below, I, The Participant, 1) agree that The Participant will abide by the rules and regulations set forth for The Program, 2) indicate that I have read and understood this Agreement in full, including any and all documents incorporated by reference, and 3) acknowledge that I am entering into this Agreement freely and voluntarily.

I, The Participant, have read, understood, and agreed.
